OCI Sessions
Date: Sundays
Time: 12:15 pm
Location: Aquinas Room

Our ministry for those wanting to become Catholic, the Order of Christian Initiation, is ongoing.

People are formed in small groups and prepared for the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist.

Whether you're brand new to the Faith or just looking for a refresher, this is a great place to start.

Order of Christian Initiation

Sponsor Volunteers Needed
We're looking for Sponsors to accompany individuals exploring the Catholic faith through the OCI process.

As a Sponsor, you'll walk alongside a "potential new Catholic" during Sunday sessions, attend Mass with them during Lent, and celebrate their Sacraments together.

We currently have several Inquirers who need someone to journey with them. This is a meaningful way to welcome a new member into our community—and a powerful opportunity to deepen your own faith in the process.

If you're interested in serving as a Sponsor, please contact Paul Stokell.

Padre Pio: Miracle Man

This movie captures the Capuchin friar's intense faith, devotion, and deep spiritual concern for others, as well as his great compassion for the sick and suffering. It reveals the amazing details and events in Padre Pio's life as a boy and throughout his fifty years as a friar, dramatizing the frequent attacks from the devil, as well as the persecution he suffered at the hands of people, including those in the Church.

Saint Matthew | Catholic Saints

Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. We are all familiar with the four Gospels, but what makes them stand out from the rest? Join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Michael Barber as they discuss St. Matthew, the great Apostle and evangelist.

Padre Pio: Between Heaven and Earth

Based on the historical records and the personal testimony of his fellow friars, this is the amazing true story of the life of the famous stigmatic monk, St. Padre Pio, a contemporary saint who died in 1968. Blessed with incredible spiritual gifts, including healing, bi-location, reading of souls, and the stigmatic wounds, Padre Pio was a powerful witness for Christ, and a great spiritual guide to countless souls for over fifty years.

Helping You Find Peace, Power, and Passion During Separation & After Your Divorce

Surviving Divorce was created to bring hope and healing to those who have experienced the pain and loneliness of a broken marriage. It is for the newly separated and divorced and those still struggling with issues many years later. It will help them find answers to their questions, restore hope, and begin authentic healing. This video-based series includes personal testimonies of Catholic men and women who have experienced the breakdown of their families. They courageously share their stories with heart, humor, and wisdom. As they witness to their pain and the healing power of Christ in their lives, participants will laugh, cry, and identify with their journeys from heartache to healing.

For Men and Women Seeking Healing from Separation & Divorce

Surviving Divorce will help you:

- Work through the emotional upheaval of separation and divorce.
- Find personal healing and hope.
- Discover a deeper understanding of God's love for you.
- Gain wisdom and comfort from experts and others who share your experiences.
- Navigate new concerns like custody, court hearings, and finances.

LITURGICAL LESSONS

WHAT DO I DO WITH MY HANDS? (PART TWO)

BY PAUL STOKELL

Keeping one's hands to one's self during the Lord's Prayer at Mass was our focus last time. Of course, there are other moments where our hands play a role: the Sign of Peace, and the reception of Holy Communion. Both are important in our celebration of the Mass, the "source and summit of the Christian life" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1324).

Shaking hands or giving a gesture of greeting to our neighbors requires interior reverence and "turning inside out" to others in the Assembly. In the early Church, this was done in different ways, including a real "kiss of peace!"

Christ's command to "take and eat" (Matthew 26:26) reveals an invitation to, and the responsibility of, each of us as communicants. St. Paul himself warns, "Whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord" (1 Corinthians 11:27), emphasizing the need for intentional spiritual preparation. The Church requires sacramental Confession for those conscious of grave (mortal) sin before receiving the Eucharist (Code of Canon Law, 916). Fasting for at least one hour before Communion is also prescribed (c. 919), symbolizing our spiritual hunger and reverence.

The Fourth Century saint Cyril of Jerusalem described those receiving the Eucharist in the hand with reverence: "Make your left hand a throne for the right, which will receive the King. And having hallowed your palm, receive the Body of Christ, saying 'Amen.'" This gesture was not casual, but deeply symbolic. By the Middle Ages, reception on the tongue became a norm, partly to safeguard the Host. St. Thomas Aquinas affirmed this in his Summa Theologiae: "Out of reverence towards this Sacrament, nothing touches it but what is consecrated" (IIIIa Q82 a3), referring to the priest's fingers. In the Church today, the Sacrament can be given by Ordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, who are either in Holy Orders or instituted Acolytes – those who receive that ministry from a bishop after some training, usually in Seminary formation. Extraordinary Ministers are also trained to do this, in Church and with others who cannot be present at Mass.

Today, the Church permits both methods of receiving, provided they are done with reverence. The communicant should make a deep bow before receiving, affirm belief with "Amen," and consume the Host immediately. To receive with your tongue, be sure to stick out your tongue far enough (and for enough time) so the minister can give you the Host. To receive with your hands, place your dominant hand (the one you write with) directly under your other hand, making sure both are flat and facing the ceiling. After saying "Amen," step aside and consume the Host. Kneeling remains a traditional posture, although standing is now common and permitted.

Whether in the hand or on the tongue, kneeling or standing, the posture is one of the heart: open to grace, united with Christ, and in communion with the Church. As St. Augustine wrote, "Be what you see; receive what you are," the Body of Christ.
