Order of Christian Initiation

OCI Sessions

Date: Sundays

Time: 12:15 pm

Location: Aquinas Room

Our ministry for those wanting to become Catholic, the Order of Christian Initiation, is ongoing.

People are formed in small groups and prepared for the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist.

Whether you're brand new to the Faith or just looking for a refresher, this is a great place to start.

Sponsor Volunteers Needed

We're looking for Sponsors to accompany individuals exploring the Catholic faith through the OCI process.

As a Sponsor, you'll walk alongside a "potential new Catholic" during Sunday sessions, attend Mass with them during Lent, and celebrate their Sacraments together.

We currently have several Inquirers who need someone to journey with them. This is a meaningful way to welcome a new member into our community—and a powerful opportunity to deepen your own faith in the process.

If you're interested in serving as a Sponsor, please contact Paul Stokell.

Scripture—and Father Dury's homilies—remind us of our call to love our neighbor and serve the poor.

At St. John Neumann, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP) offers many ways to live out that call through the Vincentian pillars of spirituality, friendship, and service.

Our ministries include:

- We also collaborate with Family Promise and Big Walnut Friends Who Share to serve those in need.

Thank you to all who already share your time, talent, and treasure through SVDP. Everyone is welcome to explore the Vincentian way of serving Christ in the poor.

Our Conference meets monthly on the 4th Monday at 7:00 pm in Room 3 below the Faith and Family Center.

OCTOBER 2025 EVENTS

Renewing the Grace of the Sacrament of Matrimony

Our parish is renewing its efforts to help couples fully receive and live out the graces of the Sacrament of Matrimony. Many couples married civilly—but not in the Catholic Church—have recently begun the process of Convalidation, where they exchange vows before a priest or deacon and two witnesses. Through this simple yet profound step, they become sacramentally married in the Church.

If either spouse was previously married and the former spouse is still living, a Declaration of Nullity from the Diocesan Tribunal is required beforehand. For help navigating prior marriages, please contact Paul Stokell, our Adult Formation Director at pstokell@stjohnsunbury.org.

If you are civilly married and interested in Convalidation, reach out to John Pratt, our Marriage and Family Life Coordinator at jpratt@stjohnsunbury.org, to take the next steps.

Calling All Disciple-Makers!

Do you feel called to serve our parish and help form the next generation of faithful disciples? We're launching a new model of youth discipleship, and we're looking for parishioners who are passionate about mentoring and walking with young people in their faith journey. Join us for a series of five training sessions this fall, designed to equip and inspire you for this important ministry. Join us for five sessions beginning October 5th.

Little Liturgical Lessons

About that Prayer Pope Leo Wrote (Not that Leo... and not that one, either)

By Paul Stokell

“Why do we say that prayer to the Archangel Michael after we’re dismissed from Mass?”

Great to know you're reading this! These Little Liturgical Lessons respond to feedback from parishioners and Parish Staff. If you have questions about the Mass or other Sacraments—here or elsewhere—feel free to reach out!

Not long ago, we began our Inquiry sessions for OCI, where people prepare to enter the church. Many SJN parishioners came as possible Sponsors or Godparents for these Inquirers (we could use some more, by the way!). One of them asked me, “Why do we say that prayer to the Archangel Michael after we’re dismissed from Mass? I don’t hear it anywhere else!” First, it’s important to know where that prayer came from.

Remember 1870? What a year! America was starting to heal from Civil War. Our British neighbors to the north had recently organized as modern Canada, and Europe had a minor dispute that erupted into the Franco-Prussian War. That conflict – which ended the First Vatican Council early, and set the stage for World War I – became so intense that some nice Italian named Garibaldi got a few thousand friends together to grab territory from what was then called the Papal States. Garibaldi wanted to unite Italy as a modern nation, but as the name implies, the owner of that desired land – Pope Leo XIII – got a bit nervous. In an attempt to bring peace to Europe (not to mention his own backyard), Leo took prayers first written by Pope Pius IX and asked the Universal Church to include them at the end of Sunday Masses. This included three Hail Marys, the Salve Regina, a verse and response, a prayer for the conversion of sinners and the liberty and exaltation of the Church, and finally the invocation of the Archangel Michael.

Fast forward to 1929. The unified Italians (under some nice guy named Mussolini) signed the Lateran Treaty, which created what is now the sovereign Vatican City State. The head of the “new, improved” territory – Pope Pius XI – chose not to end the use of the Leonine Prayers but changed the intention, for “the conversion of Russia” so that the Soviet Union might again permit freedom of worship, for oppressed Catholics and Orthodox alike. These prayers remained as a part of regular Catholic practice until they were officially suppressed (ended) in 1965, as a result of the Second Vatican Council (Inter Œcumenici, 48 j).

So...how did this prayer end up in present-day Sunbury? Like the Universal Church, the devotional behavior of this community after the celebration of Mass has evolved. Practices – always well-intentioned – came and went. A recent pastor thought it well to end Sunday Mass with the now-familiar remnant of the Leonine Prayers, and ending our Daily Masses with the Divine Praises, itself written for traditional evening prayers and often used for worship of the Holy Eucharist outside the context of the Mass.

As for Leo XIII, he became better known for a letter he wrote about the poor condition of laborers in the midst of the Industrial Revolution, Rerum Novarum (“The New Things,” 1891). This began what is now modern Catholic Social Teaching, inspiring a Chicago-born Robert Cardinal Prevost to take his name upon being elected Pope earlier this year. But the original Leo – Leo the Great (440-461) may have been a better inspiration, having saved Europe from a much more destructive power than Garibaldi – a non-Italian named Attila the Hun!
