Good Friday

As we get closer to Easter, SJN's Knights of Columbus invite families in the parish community to attend the Good Friday liturgy at St. John Neumann Friday, March 29 at 3:00 pm. This liturgy reminds families of the suffering Jesus endured through his Passion and Resurrection, thereby opening the gates of heaven for each of us. Come join us in the solemn celebration of Good Friday's central role in the heart of Christianity.

Please scan the QR code to access "Christ: Lord and Savior" article to help contemplate who Jesus is and the sacrifices he made for all of us.

A LETTER FROM FR. DURY

PRIEST ASSIGNMENTS ANNOUNCED

Dear brothers and sisters,

As I announced last weekend, Bishop Fernandes has appointed me pastor of Church of the Ascension in Johnstown, while remaining pastor here at St. John Neumann. This will be effective September 1. I am honored to remain as your pastor and to be named shepherd of another wonderful parish such as Church of the Ascension. I thank Bishop Fernandes for his confidence in me and I trust that this is God's will. This change will mean a couple of things.

First, I cannot be around here as often as I am now. God has not yet granted me the gift of bilocation. I will need to be present at liturgies and events at both parishes and so my time must be split between the two. I suspect most of my evenings will be booked, meaning less opportunities for your wonderful company at your homes for dinner. I am sorry for this, but it is the reality of being a pastor of two growing parishes.

Second, due to the increased workload, we will be getting another associate priest. I cannot yet announce who that is but hopefully will be able to soon. He will be of great help and I know that you will welcome him with open arms as you did me. He will begin his assignment here in July. This means that three priests will be serving two parishes.

When Bishop Fernandes was installed as our bishop, he resurrected the sabbatical program for priests. Every ten years of ordination, a priest is permitted to take a three-month sabbatical. This is so that he may rest and allow God to renew his priestly ministry. If a priest is burnt out, or not totally in love with Christ, he can do no good for his flock. I am past due by 4 years. I requested a sabbatical and I thank Bishop Fernandes for allowing me to take one this summer. I will be spending three months at various monasteries in Italy, spending time in prayer, visiting the tombs of saints, making a 30-day Ignatian retreat in Assisi and probably eating a fair amount of pasta. This will certainly be of great assistance as I prepare for a new venture. Fr. Peter Fegan, a Dominican friar currently at the Josephinum Seminary, will be living here for those three months, offering Masses, hearing confessions, and assisting with pastoral work. I wish to thank him for his generosity.

Again, I want to thank you for being such a wonderful parish family. I am so very blessed to be here as your pastor, and soon to be shepherd of the Church of the Ascension Family.
