Congratulations and continued prayers for our families who received First Holy Communion this past weekend!

And a long overdue welcome to our new Sacrament of First Communion Coordinator, Amanda Westrick. Amanda has been serving in this vital role as part of our Family of Faith team in an interim capacity since September and accepted the position in January. She beautifully oversees all of the details for the two-year preparation process for our families. She brings a wonderful sense of humor, amazing dedication to the role and exhibits such great warmth and vulnerability with our parents. Amanda, her husband, Eric, and their family have been parishioners since 2012.
