SJN OUTREACH

PRO-LIFE PLANNING MEETING: JANUARY 12

Come meet others in the parish interested in hands-on activities for Pro-life and the dignity of all human issues. Learn about Pro-life activities in 2026. The Meeting will take place on January 12 at 6:30 pm in the Mother Teresa room in the lower level of the Faith and Family Center. Mary Parker Kristof, Pro-Life Coordinator for the Diocese of Columbus, will be joining us to share the plan for the diocese.

SCRIP: AVAILABLE WEEKLY UNTIL CHRISTMAS

As you start your Christmas plans – whether that's travel or cooking – please consider using SCRIP gift cards for your purchases! SJN benefits when you purchase these gift cards. We will be available after Mass in the Hall of Saints weekly until Christmas.

PREGNANCY RESOURCES OF DELAWARE COUNTY DIAPER DRIVE: 12/27 & 28

Most needed Sizes: Newborn, 3 and 4 (no Luvs, please). Wipes are welcome. Donations will be collected in the Hall of Saints.
Sponsored by the Knights of Columbus.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BLOOD DRIVE: 12/27

By joining our blood donation Drive, you really have the power to save lives and make a meaningful impact on your community. Blood Drive is from 8:00 am - 12:00 pm. Visit www.redcross.org and use code: sjnp to sign up.

NOVEMBER OUTREACH

Our November outreach contributions totaled $22,918.33. These funds will be split between St. Vincent de Paul and the Good Samaritan Ministry, supporting their vital work in our community. If you would like to contribute, please visit: saintjohnsunbury.org/give.

Homebound Ministry

If you or a loved one is homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion either on a short or long-term basis, you may contact the Parish Office or email lstelmach@stjohnsunbury.org.

Our parish is blessed to have numerous trained and diocesan-approved ministers who welcome the opportunity to bring the Body of Christ to those who are homebound. The sacraments of Confession and Anointing by a priest can also be arranged.

Consecration to the Holy Family –
December 28

Knights of Columbus

The Knights of Columbus are pleased to once again host the Consecration to the Holy Family this year, continuing this meaningful tradition. In preparation, we will be distributing prayer cards and brochures before Christmas to help guide parishioners in their spiritual preparation for the Consecration.

We invite you to join us in this special devotion as we dedicate our families to the care and protection of the Holy Family.

The Door is Always Open

Order of Christian Initiation

Have you ever thought about becoming Catholic?
Do you know someone who's searching for something deeper?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI) is the Catholic Church's ministry for welcoming adults into the faith. Whether you're unbaptized, baptized in another Christian tradition, or a baptized Catholic who never received Confirmation, OCI is for you.

- ✦ It's not a lecture series—it's a journey of faith.
- ✦ It's not about having all the answers—it's about asking questions.
- ✦ It's not a commitment to join—it's an invitation to explore.

Come and see what God may be calling you to.
And if you know someone who might be searching,
share this with them.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT COMPLIANCE UPDATE

Our parish is blessed with many generous volunteers who help make our ministries, programs, and liturgies possible. As we continue our commitment to providing a safe and welcoming environment for all children and vulnerable persons, we are preparing for the Diocese of Columbus' updated Safe Environment requirements.

All volunteers are asked to be fully compliant with Protecting God's Children training and complete the required background checks by January 2, 2026. These steps help ensure that our parish remains a place of trust, protection, and faith for every member of our community.

BACKGROUND CHECK REQUIREMENTS

To meet diocesan policy, the following background checks are required for volunteers:

- BCI (Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation) background check – required for all volunteers.
- FBI background check – in addition to BCI, FBI is required for volunteers who have lived outside the state of Ohio at any point in the past five years.

If you currently volunteer, or plan to volunteer in the future, we warmly encourage you to check that your VIRTUS account is active and up to date, and that your background checks have been completed within the required timeframes.

Please contact the parish office with any questions or for assistance completing your background check or VIRTUS requirements. Our staff is happy to help guide you through the process. Thank you for your faithful service and continued commitment to protecting God's children.

Progressive? At Mass? It's More Likely Than You Think!

By Paul Stokell, Adult Formation Director

"Done properly, progressive solemnity does not become an excuse for minimalism but a tool for real pastoral excellence."

If you have questions about how the Mass is celebrated (in this parish or elsewhere), or about any of the other Sacraments, send them to pstokell@stjohnsunbury.org!

In the rhythm of Catholic worship, not all celebrations are created equal. Some days call for incense and chant; others for quiet simplicity. The principle known as progressive solemnity helps the Church navigate this spectrum, offering a structured way to scale the solemnity of our celebrations. This principle reveals how tradition and pastoral sensitivity converge in our Church's worship. It helps to guide how the Church modulates the celebration of Mass based on the importance of the day, the season of the year, our community and available resources.

While the concept of varying levels of solemnity has ancient roots—evident in the Middle Ages and the Roman Rite's distinctions between Low, High, and Solemn Masses—it was only in the 20th century that the term "progressive solemnity" gained traction. The principle was first mentioned in Church documents following the Second Vatican Council, such as Musicam Sacram (1967), the Instruction on Music in the Liturgy issued by what was then the Sacred Congregation of Rites. Musicam Sacram introduced a three-part idea for sung liturgy, dividing musical elements into three degrees. The first degree includes acclamations like the Sanctus and Amen, the second adds parts like the Gloria and Responsorial Psalm, and the third encompasses the full Proper and Ordinary of the Mass. This structure allows communities to build toward fuller celebrations as resources and occasions permit.

The principle is further noted in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), which emphasizes that the liturgy should reflect the nature of the celebration—whether it be a weekday Mass, a solemnity, or a major feast. The GIRM encourages the use of music, ministers, and ritual elements in proportion to the day's significance. At its heart, this principle is both theological and pastoral. Theologically, it reflects the Church's understanding of time and sanctity: some days in the liturgical calendar are more closely aligned with the mysteries of Christ and so merit greater festivity. Sundays, solemnities, and feasts are privileged moments of encounter with the divine. Pastorally, it acknowledges the diversity of parish life. Not every community has a full choir, a team of servers, or the capacity for elaborate ritual.

Progressive solemnity allows for flexibility without compromising reverence. In practice, this guides decisions about music, ministers, vestments, and gestures. Weekday Masses may be celebrated simply, with spoken parts and minimal music. Feasts and Solemnities invite fuller expression—chant, incense, processions, and expanded ministerial roles. The Easter Vigil exemplifies the fullest solemnity, incorporating all degrees of liturgical richness.

Kim Mandelkow, a onetime director for the Office of Divine Worship in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, compares this principle to planning meals at home: a peanut butter sandwich differs from Thanksgiving dinner, and so too does a Tuesday Mass differ from Pentecost Sunday. Some of her fellow liturgists argue that it can lead to inconsistency or minimalism, or even a "checklist" that reduces solemnity to a matter of just adding things at will. Others note that the principle can take away solemnity from major feasts due to lack of resources...or just bad planning. Done properly, progressive solemnity does not become an excuse for minimalism, but a tool for real pastoral excellence.

Progressive solemnity offers a lens into the Church's liturgical wisdom. It teaches that worship is not static but responsive—attuned to time, community, and the mysteries being celebrated. It invites assemblies, ministers and musicians to discern how best to honor the sacred within their means. It is not about doing less or more, but about doing what is fitting. It is a principle of ars celebrandi—the art of celebration—that calls our Church to reverence, creativity, and fidelity.
