Sponsor Volunteers Needed

We're looking for Sponsors to accompany individuals exploring the Catholic faith during OCI sessions throughout the year.

As a Sponsor, you'll walk alongside a "potential new Catholic" during Sunday sessions, attend Mass with them during Lent, and celebrate their Sacraments together.

We currently have several Inquirers who need someone to journey with them. This is a meaningful way to welcome a new member into our community—and a powerful opportunity to deepen your own faith in the process.

If you're interested in serving as a Sponsor,
Please contact Paul Stokell,
Pstokell@stjohnsunbury.org.

*Thank

This weekend, we say goodbye to two of our longtime 11:00 am Mass musicians as they leave for college: Isaiah May (keyboard) and Clare Smith (violin).

This Sunday will be their final Mass with us in their current roles.

Isaiah began playing at the 11:00 am Mass in 2016, and Clare joined him in 2019. They've grown up here, sharing their musical gifts in service to the Church—and in doing so, they've become a cherished part of our worship community.

Their departure will leave a big hole in our group, both musically and personally.

We'll be looking to fill those roles in the coming weeks. At the end of the 11:00 am Mass this Sunday, we'll offer a word of thanks to them and also extend an invitation to anyone who's interested in getting involved with the music ministry.

If you or someone you know might be called to serve, please reach out to Rich Krehnovi, Director of Sacred Music, at RKrehnovi@StJohnSunbury.org or introduce yourself to Aaron, our 11:00 am Music Leader, after Mass for more info and next steps.

With our prayers and appreciation

St. Philomena

Sunday, August 31 – Special
Guest at 9:00 & 11:00 am
Masses

We are honored to welcome Fr. Mondiek, who will preach at both Sunday Masses and share the story of the miraculous healing he received through the intercession of St. Philomena. Fr. Mondiek will also bring with him relics of St. Philomena, including the largest bone fragment of the saint in the Northern Hemisphere, several smaller bone relics, and a lock of her hair.

Does Language Matter?

Written by Paul Stokell, Adult Formation Director

Not long ago, one of our deacons chanted Kyrie Eleison (“Lord, have mercy”) at a Sunday Mass. A parishioner later asked, “Why do we still use Latin at Mass? What about Vatican II?”

Good question—though Kyrie Eleison isn’t Latin, but Greek, the same language commonly spoken during Jesus’ time. People used Greek in everyday life, Latin for official matters, and their native tongue at home. Our “church Latin” came a bit later but was also once a widely spoken language. While not common today, Latin remains important in theology, law, science, and philosophy.

After the Second Vatican Council (1962–65), the Church encouraged use of the vernacular (local language) in the liturgy. Still, Vatican II never abolished Latin. In fact, the Council stated that Latin “is to be preserved in the Latin rites” (Sacrosanctum Concilium 36), and encouraged the faithful to learn parts of the Mass in Latin (SC 54).

At SJN, we honor this tradition by using Latin during the Eucharistic Prayer in Advent and Lent. (And yes—there’s one other time Greek is used in a liturgy. Can you guess when?)

The Roman Catholic Church is officially known as the Latin Rite—Latin is our liturgical heritage and spiritual birthright. That said, our liturgy today can be celebrated in many languages, based on the Roman Missal, Third Edition (2010), which guides the Mass worldwide. This shouldn’t be confused with the older Tridentine or Traditional Latin Mass, which dates to the 16th century and is celebrated occasionally with a bishop’s permission. That older form gave way to the revised, vernacular Mass following Vatican II.

Some believe that the use of Latin at Mass prefigures a return to that older form of the Mass, or other former ways of doing things. Not so! We are privileged to worship in both Latin and our native language, usually English. In fact, in 2001, Pope St. John Paul II emphasized that translations should remain faithful to the Latin original—leading to the revised English Mass in 2010.

By the way – it’s during the Commemoration of the Lord’s Passion on Good Friday, one of the most dramatic points in the Great Triduum – that we hear Greek again: during the Good Friday liturgy, in the form of the Trisagion:

Agios o Theós, Agios iskhūrós, Agios āthánatos, eléison hēmās ("Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us").
